III. General professional experience:

Before joining Goldberg, Kohn, Bell, Black, Rosenbloom & Moritz, Ltd. in September 2002, I served as a United States bankruptcy judge for the Northern District of Illinois from 1988 to 2002. During my tenure on the bench, one of the largest cases over which I presided was Comdisco, Inc., involving more than $4 billion in debt. Other prominent cases I heard include Florsheim Group Inc.; Birmingham Steel Corp.; Archibald Candy Corp.; Ben Franklin Retail Stores; Keck, Mahin & Cate; Forty-Eight Insulations, Inc.; Outboard Marine Corp.; and the developers in several significant single-asset real estate cases.

IV. General pertinent experience:

While on the bench, I routinely mediated disputes in my cases and, at the requests of the presiding judges, cases assigned to other judges. Since returning to private practice, I have been retained as a mediator approximately six times.

V. Mediation training:

I have not participated in a mediation training program.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

Please see answer to Section 2.3 above.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

Please see answer to Section 2.3 above. In addition I taught a course in bankruptcy law for two years at John Marshall Law School, in Chicago, Illinois.
